

Old Arizona Brass Band Concert
Ft. Lowell Museum
Saturday, April 11, 2015

Time: 2:00-3:15 PM

FREE

Location: Ft. Lowell Museum, 2900 N. Craycroft Rd

The Old Arizona Brass Band, Performing as the 4th US Cavalry Regimental Band at Ft. Lowell, will be performing a free concert of “Music from the Western Frontier”. This will be a very entertaining, narrated, program of authentic music from the Civil War period through the late 1800’s, performed by the 22-piece period brass band, whose uniforms and instruments are authentic to the period.

Outside the Parking is available in the Ft. Lowell Park. Bring a folding chair or blanket for seating, sunscreen and water to drink. There will be no refreshments available.

The Fort Lowell Museum is open free of charge, so take time to see the museum.

This event is in cooperation with the Arizona Historical Society and the Ft. Lowell Neighborhood Association.

<http://oabb.homestead.com>